Subject: Personal email to Scott Pruitt—book release!

Hi! I interviewed Scott Pruitt for a project of mine a few years back while he was Attorney General in Oklahoma. I've now finished that project and am releasing a book based on it, and I wanted to follow up with him to say thanks and ask if I could send him a book copy! Below is my personal email to him.

Hello Mr. Pruitt! I hope you're doing awesome!! This is Holden Hill who interviewed you few years back as part of my high school journey to interview and learn from 500 Christ-following leaders.

You'll recall, the end goal of my project was to eventually write a book capturing the story of my journey and what I learned throughout. Next week on March 8th, I'm releasing that book!! Titled Bring the Fire.

You played an amazing role in my project, and I can't say thank you enough! Truly, I'm constantly mind-blown by how you and so many others took the time and interest to invest in me, support me, and believe in me—some teenager who offered you nothing but a few questions.

In the end, it was in part to seeing this selfless drive in you and so many others that I started wondering, "If these people aren't driven by what they can get for themselves, then what?" The more I sought the truth to that question through my project, the more the answer became apparent to me. Living for Christ—and, ultimately a life worth living—isn't about getting everything you can get for yourself, it's about giving it everything you've got for others.

So again, thank you. Thank you for believing in me and helping me in my pursuit of truth. In part because of you, I am who I am today.

If you will let me know what address to send it to, I would LOVE to send you a signed copy of the book! Also, if you're so inclined, you can order more copies from my website! I finished my project and wrote this book to impact, inspire, and ignite the hearts of people for Christ, and I'm asking for all the help I can get in sharing it!

Below are my website where more info and pre-orders for the book can be found, and my book trailer! I'm excited to send you a copy soon and I hope you enjoy it!
